President's Message

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"The only business that makes money without advertising is the US Gov't Mint." Perhaps you have heard this slogan before, but if you haven't you can see that it is certainly true. With the construction of our new headquarters building, SUP has become a million dollar business. We can now be classified as big business. We are now in a position, where to make money, WE MUST ADVERTISE. Lowell Castleton, our finance chairman, has come up with one of the greatest money-making ideas I have ever heard of, the Pioneer Name Memorialization

Program. Everywhere I go and present this program to people they are enthused and want to become a part of it. Everyone is anxious for their ancestral names to appear on the plaques.

The only thing our program is lacking is advertising. People have just not had the opportunity to hear about our program. Now we could spend several thousand dollars in advertising but I feel at the present time this is not necessary. SUP has a potential sales force of over 2,000 and when you include our wives, who are probably the strength behind our organization, we grow to a sales force of 4,000 enthusiastic members. No company can boast of a better or bigger sales force than we have.

Each of you is needed to make this program succeed. This is YOUR building. Each of you is a part of it. It is a very beautiful edifice that we can all be proud of. Most people, as they drive along I-80 and I-215, notice it and many people stop and ask what it is. As your president I put out a challenge to each member to tell at least one person each day about our name memorialization program.

I challenge each of you to be responsible for seeing that all of your family, friends and neighbors have the opportunity to participate in this program, if they desire, and that each of you is instrumental in memorializing at least two names. New contacts are also potential new members.

We have had a tremendous response to this program but many people have not heard about it soon enough to get the money raised by our April 1st, 1981 deadline. Because so many of our members have asked for an extension of the deadline, the National Board has decided to extend the deadline to June 22nd, 1981. This will give all of you the opportunity to let as many as possible hear about our program. Be sure that after the building is finished and the plaques are on the walls, that your relatives, or your neighbors, don't come to you and say, "Why didn't you tell me about it? I wanted my great-grandfather or grandmother's name to be there!"

K. Grant Hale, President

1981 PIONEER STORY CONTEST ANNOUNCED

The deadline for the 1981 annual pioneer story contest will be July 15, 1981. There will be a senior and junior division as usual and the stories are expected to go about 1,500 words.

THE LOG CABIN

The carpenter who builds a good house to defend us from Wind and Weather, is far more serviceable than the curious carver who employs his art to please his fancy.

-from an old tool pamphlet 1719

Building is, next to agriculture, America's largest production field. And it has been so since the English colonization of the Eastern seaboard. American architectural ingenuity is best exemplified by the adaptation to the various climatic, social and economic conditions of the various regions of America.

The compact, centralized, close-clipped house of New England with its small windows, small rooms and low ceilings adapted to long, hard winters and relatively cool summers. It could be built of either wood or masonry and readily modified for either farm or urban use.

The more extended house of the middle seaboard colonies with its basically Palladian plan; its hot weather features - high ceilings, larger windows, porches and porticos - got progressively more pronounced as it moved South.

The stilted, airy pavilion of the Louisiana French, with its parasol roof and the perimential galleries and balconies to shade the house from the sun and rain and its great emphasis on effective ventilation was a necessity to the climate in the South.

The inward-turning, patio-centered, mud masonry hacienda of the Southwest with its thick walls and few windows toward the outer world and the larger openings toward the inside patio was ideally suited to the semi-desert climates of that region.

The log cabin, small, built with the materials at hand adapted well to the four-season climate of the Rockies of Western America.

Each of these houses was a masterpiece of preindustrial folk knowledge in which locally available materials and techniques were put to use to modify the environmental extremes of the various regions.

The log cabin is the most characteristic architectural feature of the Pioneer West. The log cabin was actually an invention of the Swedes, who brought it with them to Delaware in 1638. Yet, knowledge of it did not spread much beyond there until the 18th century.

To build a single log cabin, 40 logs of proper size and length are required. A large oak, or other suitable timber of straight grain and free from limbs is selected for clapboards for the roof. These are four feet in length, six to eight inches wide and one-half inch thick. The floors, if other than the bare dirt was used, were of puncheons — wood slabs two to three inches thick, dressed on the upper surface only and laid directly upon the earth. Openings for doors, windows and chimneys were cut out after the log walls were up. Glass was dear, so windows were a luxury. There were no nails until the 1830's when machine-made nails appeared. Mortis-and-tenon and pegs were used in place of steel nails.

The corners of a log cabin were notched out with an ax in several fashions. The original Swedish design was the dovetail notch.

Lagoon's Pioneer Village features several types of log cabins. The Bigler Cabin came from the Nephi area and was constructed for the purpose of housing a spinning wheel and large loom. The Erastus Bingham Log Cabin is from the North Ogden area. Built in 1853, this cabin housed the man who first discovered the mineral deposits in the now-famous Bingham Copper Mine. The Wanship Cabin is a two-story log house with square notch corners. This was the first two-story home built in Summit County in about 1880. This sawed log house has never had a coat of paint or protective coating on the wood and the logs have been weathered to desirable "desert varnish."

Pioneer Village is filled with history - whether it be about people, places, things or architecture. We learn about man and his relationship to the environment when we study his architecture. A fascinating journey to this past is awaiting the visitor to Lagoon's Pioneer Village, where history lives.

Pioneer Village is open daily at 11:00 a.m. from Memorial Day through Labor Day.

PERSONAL RECOLLECTIONS OF PARLEY'S CANYON AND SUGAR HOUSE

by Ray L. Alston, SLC

(Concluded from the last issue)

Christopher and family made their home just north of 2100 South and 1300 East, Marjorie married Joseph Whitely and lived a little to the North. The Thomas Alston family home was built in 1888-1889 at 913 East 2100 South and was sold to Petty Motor Co., Charles Petty of Cedar City, and torn down in 1936. The other homes are still standing.

The old Utah State Prison was the famous landmark of Sugar House in the old days. Situated between 1300 East and 1700 East and south across the Parleys Creek gully and beyond including 35 acres with it's high red rock walls forming a rectangle and guard lookout houses at each corner, was a dire reminder to obey the law. The only warden I remember is Warden Davis whose home and office have been in the center, west side of the square.

When the prison was moved to the Point of the Mountain and the old prison torn down, it was a great relief to have the site determined as the Sugar House Park, with 10 acres of the 35 reserved for the Highland High School. Some S.U.P. members and leaders wanted it all to be used as a park, but most of us were delighted to have both the park and the high school located there.

I suppose few of us can remember the open Parleys Creek to where it went into a conduit just East of 1100 East and came out to fall in the creek bed at about 1000 East under the open canal that crossed under 2100 South. We fished Parleys Creek both West and East of 1100 East and all the way up the canyon. Our swimming hole was in the creek between the Bywater and the Lietz homes. We, each year on July 4th and 24th, had fireworks at the Bywater home and the first outdoor refreshment and place was on the backyard lawn at the home of Pop and Mrs. Smith and their 3 daughters at 2100 South and Lincoln Street, just South of the Bywaters.

Joseph G. Bywater, the grandfather of Brig. General Murray A. Bywater, a long time member of the Salt Lake City, S.U.P. Chapter was the engineer for the Salt Lake-Park City passenger and baggage train. We used to say we could set our clocks as he passed our home to get the street car at 900 East and 2100 South and as he approached Sugar House, my brother Walne and Lynn Bywater would be thrilled to ride at times in the engine with Lynn's father, and get off when it stopped at the water tank for a supply of water before the stiffer climb over Parleys summit. They had a little cabin up the hill to the South where they had fun or fished the creek 'till the return of the train from Park City.

At about that location near the Police range now, with our little family then Joann, Gayle, Harold and Celia, while hunting choke cherries one Fall, we heard the warning rattle of a rattlesnake. We got back in time, but saw it coiled and ready to strike. We killed it and cut off the 7 rattles and one button, which I still have and will pass on to Harold.

One of our great joys in our family was to visit our Grandfather Holt and Auntie Holt at their farm in South Hoytsville, West of the Weber River. We would take the train to Kimball Junction, have lunch with Grandfather then travel down Silver Creek Canyon to Wanship and Hoytsville. Sometimes in a bad storm and darkness, Grandfather would comfort us by telling us he was just giving the horses the reins and they would get us home no matter how bad the storm or darkness.

My memory goes back to when the old Sugar factory building became the D&RGWRR shops; of Clarks Drug Store, the Mercantile Store with Martin Mattson the Butcher, the lumber yard and Bamberger Coal Co. and Curtis Coal Co. We went to the old Central Grade School at 2100 South and 1200 East where the Irving School building now stands, with the same red rock retaining wall nicely repaired now as it used to be. The Sugar House Ward Chapel and Recreation Hall was to the West on the same block and a home for the caretaker, Bro. Bohen, also a cobbler who mended our shoes to help make a living. John M. Whitaker was our Bishop.

The school was torn down in 1908 and I got enough of the lumber that Summer to build me a tent floor and walls 2 feet high all around with a door, on which I put a tent and slept out in it that Winter.

The Forest School was built and held school from 1908 where we all finished our elementary schooling. When going to High School and at the University of Utah before World War I, I trained for running along 2100 South to the mouth of Parleys Canyon and back home. We all had due respect for Suicide Rock which we knew had been rightly named and for the hermit who lived close above there in a little cabin.

Father was the first Stake Clerk of Granite Stake formed January 1900 and made his visits throughout the area East to the mountain and South to Holladay by horse and buggy. I was the first Ward Clerk of Richards Ward formed February 1914 from Sugar House ward. I transferred 800 names from the Sugar House Ward records, and I was one of the original Swanee Singers, organized in 1914 to help finance our ward house to replace the large circus tent pitched near Parleys Creek on the Richards property in front of which the Swanee Singers group picture was taken.

We and our descendents will be very happy to see the names of our Utah Pioneer Father, Thomas Alston, and our Mother, Mary Ellen Holt Alston, Utah native Pioneer and Pioneers of Sugar House, on the metal plaque hanging in the S.U.P. new National Society Home, near the mouth of Parleys Canyon.

BEEHIVE CHAPTER MAKES PLANS

By Barbara Tullis

It is surprising what can be accomplished by a group of interested and determined people. Jerome Tullis and Ross Wilhelmsen, members of the Temple Quarry Chapter, felt there would be a real advantage in organizing a new chapter of the S.U.P. in their area, since they had enjoyed so much their association with members in their chapter, and felt that the aims of the S.U.P. were indeed commendable.

After contacting friends and associates, invitations were extended by them to attend a meeting at the home of Jerome. Fifteen attended. Those from the Temple Quarry chapter who were asked to attend and explain the program included John Turner, President; Wayne Mallet, in charge of new chapters; and Glen Greenwood, Trek-Master and representative to the National Society. Another meeting was scheduled two weeks later.

Further recruiting took place, and seven men filled out applications and paid their dues. This meeting produced the decision to hold the first dinner meeting so that those attending could see for themselves how a chapter operated. A third meeting, also held at the home of Jerome Tullis, was called so that final arrangements for the dinner meeting could be made. A real feeling of cooperation and friendship was evident. Each member agreed to contact and invite six couples to the dinner. Refreshments were served at all three meetings.

As a result of the groundwork done by this committee, a total of 58 people attended the meeting on March 25 at the East Millcreek Library. The delicious potluck dinner was enjoyed by everyone. The meeting was conducted by Jerome Tullis, with talks being given by John J. Nielsen, Executive Secretary of the National Society, and representatives from the Temple Quarry Chapter, John Turner and Glen Greenwood. Myrle Turner presented an extremely interesting sketch of her pioneer ancestors, and Paul Henry provided some fine accordian music.

Two more new members signed up, and at least four more have expressed a desire to join. We are looking forward to continued growth and to a wonderful association. We plan to choose the name of our chapter and elect officers at our next meeting. Our regular meeting date will be the fourth Thursday of each month. Those working on the committee included Bill Clark, Ray Foulger, Lloyd Karren, Glade Gerber and Loren Ferre.

Neldon Bullock, secretary and treasurer of the Lehi Chapter of the SUP has carved a Logo copy of the SUP official pin to be displayed in a prominent area of the new National Society headquarters building. Neldon lives at 578 West 2100 North, Lehi, Utah 84043 and he is the grandson of a baby that was left for dead on the midwestern plains. While the baby was left for dead, the bereaved mother heard a baby's cry and returned to find the baby alive thereafter to nurture it to live again.

Mr. Bullock required 94 1/2 hours to carve the logo and in consideration of his time and money spent in this excellent wood carving he will be able to memorialize five of his pioneer ancestors.

IF PHIL CAN DO IT — SO CAN WE DO IT!

The photo of W. Phil Robbins and his Central Electric Company on the job (including his two sons Pete and Mike) is evidence of his following through and DOING what he committed to do (prior to our starting construction) to design, to supply and to install all electric materials from contractors and supply houses and manufacturers.

There have been others who have assisted Phil in this project by contributions of their labor and soliciting electric materials and contractors and supply houses and manufacturers.

Somewhat paralleling the contribution of Phil Robbins (one of our past national presidents) are projects that have been assigned and accepted by the following chapters.

Canyon Rim/Heritage - the dumb waiter and labor in finishing thirty foot round tables and refurbishing fourteen rectangular tables.

East Mill Creek Chapter - providing the shrubbery and planting of the same per our architect's site plan.

Temple Quarry Chapter - installing our sprinkler system.

Murray Chapter - providing and planting the lawn sod per site plan.

SLC Pioneer Chapter - thirty-five foot flag pole and supplying thirty plywood table tops. Also, architectural design services by Glen Lloyd and Dennis Butler, who are members of the SLC Pioneer Chapter.

So far a total of $5,600 has been contributed as chapter contributions by the following: Kanab, Logan, Salt Lake City, Temple Fork, East Mill Creek, Ogden Pioneer chapters.

Additional projects will be initiated and assigned to other chapters. Listed below are some of the needed furnishings which hopefully chapter members or friends of the SUP will volunteer to contribute.

Office furniture - two office desks and chairs, one secretary desk and chair; banquet table covers to be assigned to the sisters in six of our nearby chapters (10 each). Kitchen equipment - two electric ranges, one refrigerator, one dishwasher. Public address system, funds totaling $3,500.

Railroad ties for a retaining wall around the northeast corner of our new home. One baby grand piano, one large conference table for the library and board room, five or six lounge sofas for our Pioneer Memorial Library.

The fund raising committee and the volunteer office workers have been extremely pleased to receive and record the hundreds and hundreds of heart warming contributions toward memorializing the pioneer forebearers whose names will appear on our gallery walls.

John J. Nielsen, Ex. Sec.

BOX ELDER READY FOR 1981

The Box Elder Chapter of the SUP has an ambitious program for 1981. Under the direction of the membership committee with Clinton Beasley, the chapter has enrolled eleven new members. They are: Leo J. Meacham, William T. Krueger, Vernon L. Johnson, Raymond Nelson, Melvin F. Nelson, Von R. Curtis, Marvin W. Wright, Willard Fontenot, Frank D. Reid and Wendell C. Kotter.

The new chapter committee under the guidance of the chairman Douglas Cannon have assisted in organizing several residents of the Tremonton area into a unit to be known as the Golden Spike Chapter of the SUP and will help to correlate several cooperative activities with the mother chapter.

National vice president, J.C. Haws has been helpful in the organizing of the new chapter and will serve as their national vice president. He is active also in the support of the new building and in the national encampment.

Wm. H. and Stella Griffiths lead all contributors to the new building in Salt Lake with $1,000. The chapter has twenty separate committees each one making a creditable contribution to the operation of the chapter. Officers meetings have been devoted chiefly to organizing committees, revising and restating articles of incorporation and bylaws. The aim is to allow full participation of all who have a desire to make meaningful contributions to the total program.

HEARTS OF CHILDREN TURNED TO FATHERS

Maude Keller Taylor is a lovely lady; a native and life-long resident of E.M.C. Her husband Ralph died some 12 yrs. ago. Maude at 85 is crippled with arthritis; still she has lived alone in a humble home since her good husband passed on.

Her grandfather, Alva Keller, followed up the Mill Creek stream early in the spring of 1948 looking for firewood. He built a dug-out home on the creek about 2150 East and lived there that spring while he planned to build a home for his family.

When Maude heard of the S.U.P. plans, she wanted to memorialize her grandfather and his 3 wives. She started calling and writing the descendants of the 3 wives. She now turned in $400.00 from about 30 donors.

Maude says, "This has been the thrill of my life". Her relatives have come to visit her with their small contributions. Her joy is great in realizing her GOAL!

On November 12, 1980 the Salt Lake City chapter honored all of its living past presidents at a special dinner meeting. Each president received a beautifully inscribed presidential plaque in commemoration of their faithful service. The above picture was taken of these former chapter presidents on this special occasion. Shown are:

MORMON BATTALION DAY NOTED IN SAN DIEGO

By Marvin E. Smith

Mayor Pete Wilson of San Diego paid a profound tribute to the Mormon Battalion by declaring Jan. 29, 1981 as "Mormon Battalion Day". This marked the 133 anniversary of the arrival of this unit of the U.S. Army at the west coast city where they participated in community development projects.

The proclamation was presented by Deputy Mayor Bill Mitchell to Grant S. Thorn, director of the Visitor's Center near the monument at Fort Stockton. Mention was made that the heroic size monument of the Battalion soldier was sculptured by Ed Fraughton who also designed the official medallion for the inauguration of President Ronald Reagan. The monument itself was donated to the city of San Diego by the Sons of the Utah Pioneers in 1969.

It is hoped that this historical proclamation will become an annual event. How did it come about? George Story, City Assistant and Information Director notified Grant Thorn that the bronze musket had been vandalized and taken from the monument. City employees had found and repaired it and then restored it. Appreciation was expressed for these services. A historical brief was sent to Mr. Story regarding the Battalion and early days of San Diego.

At this point three representatives of the Visitor's Center were invited to the City offices and plans were made to have the Proclamation presented on Jan. 29, the anniversary date. The Center would then reciprocate with a letter of appreciation to Mayor Wilson for the efficient services of the metal fabrication shop which was headed by Ivan Lewis with Bob Winberg as project supervisor.

Associated with Grant Thorn in this historic planning event at City Hall were two well-known SUP personalities from Utah: Ken Wiseman, past national president, and J.C. Richards who is commander of the Utah Division for the Mormon Battalion. These three men with wives are serving as voluntary guides at the Mormon Battalion Visitors Center in Old Town, San Diego.

THE CITY CREEK CHAPTER

Note: This article is the first of a series which will include life histories of members of the first pioneer company. Later articles will be "Lewis Barney" by Ron Barney; "Green Flake" by Leonard J. Arrington; "Harriet Page Young" by Jeff Johnson and "Orson Pratt" by Larry W. Draper.

Wilford Woodruff, in his diary for 24 July 1847, writes, "After gazing awhile upon the scenery, we traveled across the table land into the valley 4 miles to the encampment of our brethren who had arrived 2 days before us. They had pitched their encampment upon the bank of two small streams of pure water and had commenced plowing..." This camp was near a small stream soon to be called City Creek, which provided the water for the first irrigation in the Intermountain West. A newly organized chapter of the Sons of the Utah Pioneers has been named after this creek. This chapter was organized at the Church Headquarters Office Building which is built on the old creek bed.

The City Creek chapter holds its monthly meetings on the first Wednesday at lunch time in the Church Office Building Cafeteria. Emphasizing the research and writing of family history, members of the chapter present scholarly papers at each meeting. At the first meeting Noel Barton presented a paper concerning the 1896 reunion of the survivors of the Mormon Battalion. He talked about the people in the photographs taken at the time. The next paper was given by Jimmy Parker concerning the sources and techniques for writing a life history of a Danish convert to the Church. Future papers will include life histories of pioneers, studies of Mormon settlements and studies of immigrant companies. The meetings are open to anyone that would like to participate. For more information concerning the upcoming meetings, contact, Paul Smart at 531-2306 or Jeff Johnson at 531-2277.

Another important project deals with the research the chapter is doing in relationship to the Pioneer Trail markers. This project will help in the restoration of the markers.

Serving as president of the City Creek Chapter is Jeffrey O Johnson, Paul F. Smart is president elect, Ronald G. Watt is secretary, and Larry W. Draper is treasurer. The membership committee includes Noel R. Barton, Michael F. Moody and Dean J. Hunter.

WHISPERS ON WINGS

by Mildred C. Warner

On March 17th I drove from Payson to Salt Lake City. While there I learned that the Sons of the Utah Pioneers planned to honor early immigrants to the Great Basin. Memorial plaques were to be divided into two categories: from 1847 to 1869 and from 1869 on. To have an ancestor honored on a plaque would cost one hundred dollars ($100.00).

I became quite excited because I had two ancestors to honor — one from my father's line and one from my mother's.

My mother's father was Martin Littlewood. He arrived in the Valley as one of the early pioneers. He settled in Salt Lake City and married Annie Parkes. Martin later moved to Meadow in Millard County.

My father's father was Lyman Curtis. He had joined the church in 1833 while living in Michigan. Thereafter he settled in Kirtland and joined Zions Camp under the leadership of Hyrum Smith. He settled in Caldwell County but mobs forced him to leave and move to Nauvoo, Illinois. While in Nauvoo he helped bring timber down the Mississippi River to build the Nauvoo Temple. He also polished stones for the temple by placing sand on them and grinding another stone against it. Lyman acted as a guard to the body of Joseph Smith at the time of the martyrdom.

In the spring of 1847, Lyman left Council Bluffs in company with Levi Jackman, sharing the same wagon. Later they joined the Brigham Young company. Brigham's company was detained due to sickness, so Lyman joined Orson Pratt's company and arrived in the Salt Lake Valley on the 22nd of July 1847. He was one of the "nine" men who first entered the Valley. Years later he often told his family, "The honor attributed to me was building the first fire in the valley." Unfortunately, Lyman has never received the just honor due him — to be acknowledged as one of the "Nine Horsemen". He is the mysterious ninth member of the Orson Pratt excursion party.

When I learned of the memorial plaques, I wanted Lyman Curtis and Martin Littlewood memorialized, but I had a problem. "Where would I raise two hundred dollars?" I decided to pray and meditate on the problem; maybe I could solve it.

One day while ironing downstairs a thought persisted in passing through my mind, "Why don't you look in the pioneer trunk!" It was like 'Whispers on Wings' - the impression was so strong. I stopped ironing and knelt down by "Old Pioneer", the name the family had given the old trunk. The trunk was made of fir with a rounded top and banded with tin.

Upon opening the trunk my eyes fell upon worn pictures and an old shoe box filled with letters. I felt impressed to read the letters. I tenderly opened a letter dated May 12, 1903 from Naco, Arizona which was addressed to my father, Asa Curtis. Upon opening the letter five Ulysses S. Grant stamps fell out! I learned at the Post Office that each stamp was worth $55.00.

Sure enough! The whisper on wings opened the way for me to pay the two hundred dollars! Now I could provide a plaque for my illustrious but yet to be honored grandfathers.

My father researched nine (9) years to secure evidence to prove that his father was the ninth horseman of the Orson Pratt excursion party. At the time that the "This Is The Place Monument" was built he tried to prove this point but had met failure. I guess to have an unknown horseman adds mystery and mystic to the monument. I think "Pa Pa" wanted me to have his father's name placed on a plaque, so he sent whispers on wings.

CYRENE NEFF BAGLEY

Marian Woodward and Jean Lloyd
(Note: Regretfully, this biographical sketch had to be edited for this issue of the Pioneer.)

Cyrene Neff Bagley, born June 16, 1892, is the eldest son of ten children born to Edward Cyrene and Amanda Neff Bagley. They lived in the large white house at 5600 Highland Drive, Salt Lake City. Their home had the first telephone in the area and, with their neighbor the Brighton's across the street, had the first indoor running water.

As a youth Cyrene was put to work helping his father in the meat market and grocery store owned by the family. His grandfather operated a slaughterhouse and he was called upon to bring in cattle from throughout the valley.

He was in the first graduating class of eleven students of the Granite High School, a member of the debate team, drama class and manager of the football team. He used to ride his horse and drive the buggy the five miles to the school.

After high school Dad went to college in Logan. He attended Sunday School in his new ward and the teacher was absent, but some lovely young lady volunteered from the back of the room to help with the lesson. Not seeing who she was, he remarked to his buddy, "I'm going to marry that girl." Later that evening he walked home with the Davidson girls and had to wait until he heard her voice before he knew which of the girls he was pledged to court. Dad married Martha Davidson July 18, 1917 in the Logan LDS Temple.

Dad served in the French Mission in 1913, laboring in Geneva Switzerland until he was called to finish his mission in England when the German Army invaded Paris. Always active in church affairs he was also a prime mover for progress. He organized the Callao Irrigation Co., he was secretary for the National Advisory Board to the Bureau of the Land Management for several years.

Typical of his dexterity and practical knowledge is the incident when one of the cows got caught in the manger and threw her neck out so she couldn't straighten it. He put a chain around her neck, hooked the tractor to it and gave it a jerk. The cow ran off completely healed. Anyone for neck or back troubles?

Dad sent his boys on missions and all his children to college. We knew that they were worthy of the Lord's choicest blessings. We thank Dad for this heritage and for his love.

NEW CHAPTER ELECTS NEW PRESIDENT

Don Stenquist has just been elected president of the newly formed Golden Spike Chapter of the Sons of Utah Pioneers in Tremonton, Utah. In their original chartering meeting on February 20, 1981, they met with the officers of the Box Elder Chapter to discuss name, officers, and bylaws. Box Elder Chapter president, Sam Gordon and SUP National Vice President, J. C. Haws outlined suggested procedures and activities to the new chapter.

In addition to Stenquist, Verl Nelson was elected vice-president, Glen Curtis was selected as secretary-treasurer and Ed Kerr, Jack Shumway and Mel Foxley and Owen Cannon were elected directors of the new group.

Stenquist is cashier and vice president of a Tremonton bank, a member of the city council and has been active in many local civic affairs.

For more information, contact Glen Curtis, Leader Publishing Co., P.O. Box 127, Tremonton, Utah 84337 or phone 157-5182.

Other members of the new group include DeVerl Payne (Irene); Kenneth Porrett (Peggy); Richard Rock (Laveda); Grant Fridal (Ida); Russell Webb (Yvonne) and Carl K. Haupt.

YOUR CHAPTER -
"MEDIocre" OR
"OUTSTANDING?"

By Orson D. Wright, DDS

As leaders of a chapter you have the responsibility to lead your chapter emphatically and consistently towards lofty achievements. Since the chapter has said you are the right men to lead the chapter, you must lead properly for you are entrusted with a great responsibility.

Indeed you are on the spot. You must move ahead and be a success. Your members will look at you, follow you and yet they will critically evaluate your accomplishments. They expect the best performance, so you will have to give it to them.

As a prerequisite you will need to know yourself, set personal goals and chapter short and long range goals, know your job and then do your job. Search yourself for you have the talents and abilities to properly run the chapter if you have the will and desire to do the job.

*The basic operation of a chapter requires that the officers and hence the chapter know where they are going and how to get there. The Fundamental Keys of Basic Chapter Organization involves three initial steps which if followed will get the officers off to the right start and will keep them on the track. Use these checks to test your progress.

____1. Set out a Chapter Organizational Structure with the responsibilities of each man and committee.

____2. Plan the chapter program in a Year's Calendar set out in time frames of accomplishment.

____3. Project income and expenses in a Year's Written Budget. Keep accurate records.

*Continue your chapter operation and organization properly programmed as above by incorporating the other Fundamental Keys of Basic Organization which will make an outstanding chapter out of mediocre units. The following continues check list will highlight these other Keys of Effective Chapter Operations.

____4. Chapter Goals for the year.

____5. Appointment of Committees, Chairman, etc.

____6. Viable Membership Program.

____7. Reactivation and Retention Program.

____8. Creation of a New Chapter.

____9. Effective Administrative Meetings.

____10. Interesting Chapter Meetings.

____11. Effective Chapter Activities.

____13. Honor Wives.

____14. Dues into National on time.

____15. Recruitment of Life Members.

____16. Raising of Funds for the National Headquarters.

Perhaps the greatest single challenge we have today is to increase membership in the recruitment of new members and establishment of new chapters. The strength of one membership is registered in our zeal and enthusiasm in going out and getting new members. Without membership growth all program suffer.

I am convinced that chapter membership will not be built unless all members are enthused about it and are eager to help. The Chapter President must be all for it. There is nothing more discouraging to a chapter than the loss of membership and poorly attended meetings. A moving enthusiastic program can be slowed to a stand still by a manpower shortage - it damages enthusiasm and momentum and without growth, no chapter can have real success or longevity and with a viable and successful membership program, there is no goal which cannot be reached. The potential of membership is staggering. An alert staff of officers simply will not permit the chapter to fail.

Now, where does your chapter stand? It behooves each chapter to review its operations and to rise to its greatest height. All too often our progress in the future is eclipsed and limited by the past. In reality if we truly understand the merits and quality of S.U.P. we can catch glimpses of future pioneers - people of our times, our everyday life who will be remembered by their descendents and revered as pioneers of their day. Let us work so that those after us will honor our efforts. Let us build our organization for the future.

Our theme should continue to be "PIONEERING TODAY AND IN THE FUTURE." As we pioneer today our chapter will grow using the above check lists as guidelines to success.

In order to have a productive chapter operation, if you have not done so you will want to set out organized membership program and follow the checklist in this article to build your chapter operation. Only by your united efforts will you attain the full measure of success which you and SUP richly deserve.

LORRIN PAGE TINNEY

Lorin Page Tingey, age 68, of the Box Elder Chapter died July 25, 1980 at his home. He was born November 24, 1911 in Brigham City, a son of Orson L. and Essie Guymon Tingey. He married Anna Alvord on December 1, 1933 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple.

He was reared and educated in Brigham City and worked for the Brigham City Corporation as an electrician for 37 years. He retired in 1977 as superintendent of the electrical department.

He was a life long dairy farmer and member of the Holstein-Friesian of America. He bred and exhibited many blue ribbon animals throughout the intermountain area.

He was an active LDS church member serving as sunday school superintendent, counselor in the bishopric and high priest group leader. He was a member of the Box Elder Chapter of the SUP and was an avid booster of Box Elder High School sports.

Survivors include his widow, two sons and two daughters, twenty-one grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; four brothers and four sisters.

History through art...

Bingham's Fort - Ogden, Utah - 1853 — Oil Painting by Farrell R. Collett

...FROM THE BICENTENNIAL HISTORICAL ART COLLECTION, WEBER STATE COLLEGE

"Fort up" was the advice Brigham Young sent to all Mormon settlements at the outbreak of the Walker Indian War. In response, Ogden settlers built Bingham's Fort by weaving willows upon a log framework over which mud was spread. A cabin from this fort is on display in Pioneer Village at Utah's Lagoon.

The Weber State College Bicentennial Historical Art Collection is comprised of over 60 original paintings by 23 prominent Utah artists to preserve in visual art form a measure of Utah's history. The collection is on permanent display in the Stewart Library of Weber State College, Ogden, Utah.
